

CORPORATE SECURITY
as a SERVICE - (CSaaS)

When you need multiple security EXPERTS and only have a budget for one.

ONE FEE. LIMITLESS RESOURCES.

Today you need an investigator, tomorrow a cyber expert, next week a security manager in Mumbai. Finding skilled talent is expensive, and inexperienced people may cost you even more. With CSaaS, you pay a flat fee, and you get security professionals to deliver practical solutions. With a focus on your budget, we scale up or down based your current needs. Why pay 100% of the expense for something you only need 25% of the time. With CSaaS, you don't.

Internal Security Staff

- Have expertise limitations
- Need training
- Attend costly trade shows
- Take leave and vacation
- Get sick or injured
- Resign and retire
- Have fringe benefit costs

Corporate Security as a Service (CSaaS)

- Specialize in areas of expertise
- Support any location globally
- Embed into your organization
- Meet deadlines and project plans
- Collaborate with internal teams
- Has deep government ties
- Scales up and down as needed

The security research group and think tank, The Ponemon Institute, published a 22-page study, from 612 chief security officers asking their biggest security concerns. #1 "inadequate in-house expertise" making it harder to get things done to prepare for security incidents and to build and harden their ongoing security strategies.
